

FROM DIGITAL NOMADS TO REMOTE COMPANIES How to become location independent

5-6 September, 2019

Day 1 - Corvinus University of Budapest, Budapest Campus, Auditorium III

Thursday – 5th September 2019

9:30-09:50 Registration

9:50-10:00 Greetings from Károly Mike, the Dean of Economic School of CUB

10:00-10:10 Introduction from Ilona Cserhádi, Head of Research of EU project “Sustainable, intelligent and inclusive regional and city models”

10:10-12:00 Session 1 – New forms of work in the digital age (Chair: Tibor Takács, Deputy Head of EU project “Sustainable, intelligent and inclusive regional and city models”)

1. “Technology, mobility and skills on the EU agenda”, László Andor, Senior Fellow at Hertie School of Governance, former EU Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs and Inclusion
2. "Infinite dreams – game changing innovation whilst creating revolutionary new solutions, new business and economics models and an entirely new way of working", Ilyas Vali. Founder at rLoop
3. “Innovation and remote work” László György, Secretary of State, Ministry for Innovation and Technology
4. “Working remotely, now and in the future...are you ready?” Roberta Sawatzky, Professor, Okanagan School of Business, Canada
5. “Remote work and competitiveness” Kristóf Lehmann, Director at National Bank of Hungary, Head of Department of HNB at CUB

12:00-13:00 Lunch Break

13:00-14:30 Session 2 – Remote work as a practical issue: How to start your remote carrier and what makes you successful (Chair: László Andor)

1. “Digital nomadism: work from places that inspire you”, Gonçalo Hall, Remote work and distributed workforce consultant, Remote-How, Inc., Portugal
2. "Socioeconomic Impact of Remote Work: Opportunities, Tools, and Skills", Jessie Rucker, Chapter Lead, Grow Remote USA
3. “Estonia’s innovation in real life”, Kristiina Aljas-Saarma, Head of Sales, 1Office Group, Estonia
4. “How and why remote teams/workers can help your company scale”, Jon Paolo Fortich, CEO of Digital Swiss Army Knife, Republic of the Philippines

14:30-15:00 Coffee Break

15:00-16:30 Session 3 – Round table discussion: Opportunities and necessary economic strategies for Hungary (Chair: Péter Ákos Bod)

1. Péter Ákos Bod, Professor, former Governor of Hungarian National Bank
2. Áron Levendel, Co-founder and CEO of Kaptár Coworking Office
3. Kristóf Lehmann, National Bank of Hungary
4. László György, Secretary of State, Ministry for Innovation and Technology

18:00-20:00 Networking Dinner on the Danube River

FROM DIGITAL NOMADS TO REMOTE COMPANIES How to become locally independent

Day 2 - Corvinus University Budapest, Székesfehérvár Campus, room 113

Friday – 6th September 2019

Mastermind course

(Chair: Tibor Keresztély, Deputy Head of EU project “Sustainable, intelligent and inclusive regional and city models”)

- 9:00 Leaving for Székesfehérvár Campus from Budapest by the conference bus
- 10:00-10:30 Session 1 – What is e-Residency and how to use it to set up a location independent company. (Kristiina Aljas-Saarma)
- 10:30-11.00 Session 2 – Grow Remote (Jessie Rucker)
- 11:00-11:30 Coffee Break
- 11:30-12:00 Session 3 – How to become a successful digital nomad (Gonçalo Hall)
- 12:00-12:30 One to one consultations
- 12:30-13.30 Lunch
- 14:00 Leaving for Budapest by the conference bus